

FLU CLINICS HELD FOR THE GENERAL PUBLIC

Adams County Public Health in partnership with Moundview Memorial Hospital have scheduled Influenza Clinics for November 14th & December 2nd, 2006 for persons 18 years and older. After waiting one extra month for the influenza vaccine to be delivered, there is now an adequate supply for all that need the vaccine. "We have had to forgo our outlying clinics in Easton & Rome this year because of the lateness of the vaccine delivery" said Linda McFarlin, Health Officer.

Influenza vaccine for children under age 18 will be offered at the regularly scheduled monthly immunization clinics.

Persons who should NOT receive the vaccine are those who have an allergy to eggs. If you are ill and have a fever you should delay receiving the vaccine until your symptoms are gone.
